Take yor business inside customer
phone

OPEN COMMUNICATION

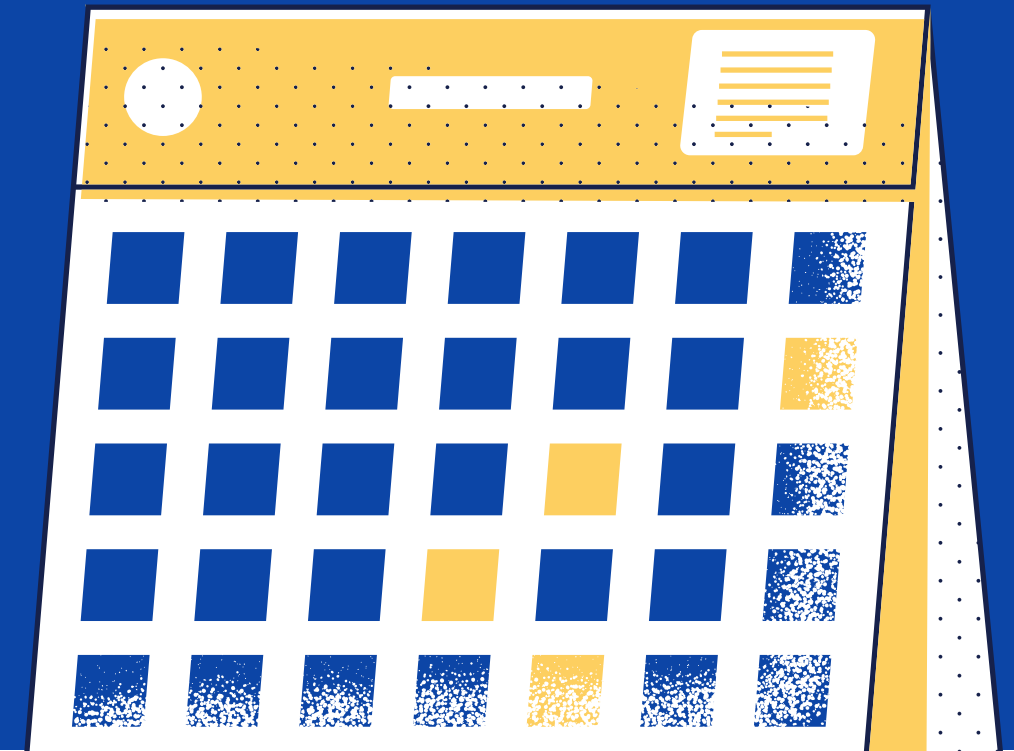

Customer only buy when first he aware about your service and second when you build Trust and Relation

An Interactive Website is one which shows your business service details, along with communication line with an user Interactive desing and call to action.

Every business has different kind of service, so website should be design based on business priority, for good result and can interact with your customer !!

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT

Domain name is an address on Internet through which your customer find you. Its a first step to go online with website
" A letter without name tag goes nowhere"
Ex - www.your-business-name.com

Website is a tool or a web application which act like your business online window to welcome your customer 24*7, even while you're asleep, your website helps your customer to aware about your product and services.

Hosting is a last step in order to go Online with your Business Website, hosting service helps to make your website available for all the time, manage storage, bandwidth and most important continuously run to keep you accessible globally.

SENSE OF ACCOUNTABILITY

Before going to launch your Business Website you must be accountable for this "New Market Place".

New Market Place -
In this market your Online window is your Market representer. Keep window open, well organised, be active on window, helps them with FAQ and be inside their phone with your store address details.

CALL TO ACTION

A Good Business Website without "Call To Action" is like telling them about "Awesome Night Party" but not "inviting them".

Business Website with text written "Call To Action" encourage the visitor to "Buy your product/service online or to Visit Your Store".
